CONTENTS

Preface xiii
Acknowledgements xviii

1 Forces at the gate: An active audience 1
Technology and journalism 4
  Before social media: One-way communication 5
  Social media: Journalism as a conversation 6
Changing role of the audience 7
  Who are the gatekeepers now? 10
  Content producers: The power of an active audience 12
  News consumption: Mobile and social 15
Impact on journalists 21
  Newsgathering 23
  Distribution of news 28
  Audience engagement 31
Checklist 35
  Beyond the book 35
  Class hashtag 36
  Stay informed 36
  Discussion 36
2 Navigating change: The mobile-first newsroom
   Rebooting the newsroom 40
   Breaking down silos 41
   Financial and employment picture 43
   Power of social media providers and other tech giants 46
   Mobile-first mindset 48
   Adapting to a mobile audience: Evolving business models 54
      Newspaper 54
      Television 56
      Radio 57
      Digital-only 58
   Newsroom mobile and social media editorial strategies 61
      Keep them coming back for more 62
      Different platforms, different approaches 68
      Experimenting with mobile and social news products 72
      Checklist 76
         Mobile and social media strategy analysis 76
         Discussion 77

3 Your social media brand: Who do you want to be? 82
   Social media branding and journalism 83
   Social media audit 85
      Search 85
      Analyze and act 86
      Assume everything is public 88
   Building a social media brand 92
      Separate personal and professional accounts? 93
      Online spaces where you should be active 94
      Creating standout social media profiles 97
      Consistency 101
      Think before you post 102
      Become the go-to journalist 105
      Checklist 113
         Social media audit 113
         Build your presence 113
         Choose a beat 114
         Discussion 114
         Reminder 114

4 Social newsgathering
   Social sleuthing: Story ideas 120
      Social listening 120
      Social searching 122
      Social media command listening and search 127
      Crowdsourcing: Social collaboration 128
         Harnessing the power of crowds 128
         Reporting what you gather 129
      Checklist 132
         Social media lists 132
         Social dashboard 132
         The workout 132
         Crowdsource 133
         Reminder 133

5 From the field: The mobile journalist
   Digital-first mindset: Mobile first 134
      Planning your story: The mobile journalist 134
      Different types of stories 136
   Working remotely 138
      Equipment and accessories 138
      Storage and file management 138
      Mobile reporting apps 139
   Video 140
      Production apps 140
      Shooting 140
      Editing multitrack stories 143
      Readable social videos 143
      Vertical story format 143
      Live streaming 143
      Publishing video 143
   Audio 144
      Production apps 144
      Recording and editing 144
   Still images 145
      Production apps 145
      Photography 145
      Social media graphics 145
4 Social newsgathering 116

- Social sleuthing: Story ideas, sources, and content
  - Social listening 117
  - Social searching 118
  - Social media command center: Organize 123
    - Listening and searching

- Crowdsourcing: Social collaboration and curation 128
  - Harnessing the power of the audience 130
  - Reporting what you gather: Vetting and visualizing the data 131

- Checklist 141
  - Social media lists 144
  - Social dashboard 144
  - The workout 144
  - Crowdsourcing 145
  - Reminder 145

5 From the field: The mobile journalist 147

- Digital-first mindset: Mobile and social 150
  - Planning your story: The digital-first story pitch 150
  - Different types of stories, different approaches 152

- Working remotely 156
  - Equipment and accessories 156
  - Storage and file management 160
  - Mobile reporting apps 161

- Video 161
  - Production apps 162
  - Shooting 164
  - Editing multitrack stories 168
  - Readable social videos 170
  - Vertical story format 172
  - Live streaming 174
  - Publishing video 175

- Audio 177
  - Production apps 177
  - Recording and editing 178

- Still images 180
  - Production apps 180
  - Photography 181
  - Social media graphics 184
Mobile-first workflow: A digital juggling act 187
  Managing the reporting process 187
  Workflow in action 189
Checklist 190
  Website tutorials 190
  Mobile-first discussion 190
  Get in the mojo groove 191
  Scavenger hunt 191
  Reminder 192

6 Writing mobile-friendly web stories 195
Mobile-friendly layout of web stories 196
  Mobile audience 196
  Prioritize article pages 197
  Bite-sized, “snackable” chunks 197
  Length 199
  Visuals 199
Writing with a mobile audience in mind 204
  Story structures 204
  Search engine optimization (SEO) 208
  Short and shareable headlines 210
  Front-load stories: Secondary headlines and key points 212
  Leads 213
  Nut grafs 216
  Subheadings 217
  Photo captions 218
Checklist 221
  Put on your editor’s hat 221
  Writing and layout drill 221
  Teaching moment 223

7 Social media engagement and audience analytics 225
What do I post while reporting? 226
  Social media optimization 227
  Writing for social media 230
  Live coverage: Reporting in real time 235
  Beyond the “final” story: Continuing the conversation 241
Checklist 243
  Social media activity: Sharing as you report 243
  Multimedia web story 244

Is it working? Measuring the impact of newsroom and social media activity 246
  How newsrooms use social media analytics tools 248
  Pitfalls of analytics 249
  Analytics tools 250
  Report, share, experiment, iterate 253
Checklist 255
  Making sense of the data 255

8 Social media ethics and policy 257
New dilemmas 259
  Charting an ethical course: A primer on social media ethics 260
  Newsroom social media policy: The contract 262
    You can’t post that! Policy 262
    Contacting sources on social media 263
    Interacting with the audience 264
    Verification of user-generated content 265
    Seeking permission, copyright 266
    Correction guidelines 266
    Ownership of social media content 267
Checklist 269
  Mobile and social media ethics 269
  What’s the real deal? 270
  What would you do? 270
  Tweet backlash 270
  Reminders 271

9 The spread of fake news 273
What is fake news? 275
  Post-truth world 275
  Why people share fake news 275
  Identifying fake news 276
  Shared responsibilities to combat fake news 277
    Technology companies 277
    Journalists 277
    Educators 278
    Public 278
Checklist 278
  Resources 278
Contents

Is it working? Measuring the success of your mobile and social media activity 246
How newsrooms use social media and web analytics 248
Pitfalls of analytics 250
Analytics tools 252
Report, share, experiment, measure, adjust 259
Checklist 260
Making sense of the data 260

8 Social media ethics and policies 264
New dilemmas 265
Charting an ethical course: Applying journalism ethics to social media 267
Newsroom social media policies 271
You can’t post that! Professional and personal activity 272
Contacting sources on social media 275
Interacting with the audience 277
Verification of user-generated content 279
Seeking permission, copyright, and fair use 283
Correction guidelines 288
Ownership of social media accounts 290
Checklist 292
Mobile and social media strategy analysis 292
What’s the real deal? 292
What would you do? 292
Tweet backlash 293
Reminders 293

9 The spread of fake news 297
What is fake news? 300
Post-truth world 303
Why people share fake news 305
Identifying fake news 306
Shared responsibilities to combat fake news 309
Technology companies 309
Journalists 312
Educators 314
Public 316
Checklist 320
Resources 320
10 Mobile and social media in your career
Qualifications needed in today's newsrooms 327
Mobile and social media jobs and internships 329
Finding job and internship leads 333
Breaking into the business: Leverage your digital know-how
Online portfolio and brand 339
Resume 340
Cover letter 342
Applying and interviewing 342
Checklist 346
Review job descriptions 346
LinkedIn Alumni search 346
Polish and present your profile 346
Infographic resume 346
Beyond the book 347

Index 349